A guided practice, “Match and Describe” is conducted in which students match objects/situations with correct adjectives.

	Example:  <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Picture of a birthday party → “a fun party”  <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Picture of a pencil → “a sharp pencil” Once they finish the previous activity, students draw their own object and describe it with 2 adjectives. C. “My Crazy Classroom” students describe their classroom, real or imaginary. Example: There is a big desk, a soft chair, and a colorful board. To conclude and review the lesson, the whole class plays Adjective Detective. The teacher describes something using two adjectives only.

Two Hotels

Angela: I've found these two hotel brochures. Let's look at them closely for our holiday. The first one is the Alba Hotel. It's a nice small hotel near the city centre. The second one is the Conrad hotel by the seaside.

Mike: Let's compare them, then.

Angela: Alba is a boutique hotel and doesn't have many facilities. It's cheaper than the Conrad hotel.

Mike: Yes, you're right. Besides, it's lovelier than the Conrad hotel. Look at this lovely restaurant.

Angela: On the other hand, the Conrad hotel is a five-star hotel and it has everything. There is even a hairdresser in it. I think it is more relaxing than the Alba hotel.

Mike: I agree with you. However, Alba looks cosier than Conrad. It really has a warm atmosphere. Besides, I think Conrad is a bit expensive hotel.

Angela: What about the rooms?

Mike: Conrad's rooms are larger and nicer than Alba's.

Angela: Alba's rooms are looking at the river, so their views can be more beautiful than Conrad's. However, their room service isn't as good as Conrad's.

Mike: Alba is only five-story high. Conrad is much higher than Alba. I think a view from a Conrad's room will be great.

Angela: Maybe. Both hotels have advantages and disadvantages. I can't decide on one of them.

Mike: Let's go to Conrad Hotel. It's bigger and has a great swimming pool. I think the weather will be hotter than now when we get there. This swimming pool will be awesome for us.

Angela: Alright, let's go to Conrad then. Also, their rooms look much cleaner than Alba's.

Decide if the statements are true or false according to the text.

1. Hotel Conrad isn't a small hotel. _____
2. Hotel Conrad hasn't got many facilities. _____
3. Hotel Alba hasn't got a lot of rooms. _____
4. Conrad is a cheap hotel. _____
5. Hotel Alba has a warmer atmosphere than the Conrad hotel. _____
6. Conrad's room service is better than Alba's. _____

Later, the teacher emphasizes the national celebrations, considering when and where they are held.

Examples:

- The National Beauty Pageant – held in Cartagena in November
- Black and White Carnival – held in Pasto, on January 5th to 6th
- The Flower Fair – held in Medellín in August

Besides that, the teacher clarifies that when talking about an event or celebration date, cardinal numbers are crucial.

HOW TO SAY THE DATE IN ENGLISH

THE NUMBER OF THE DAY - ORDINAL NUMBERS

1 st first	11 th eleventh	21 st twenty-first
2 nd second	12 th twelfth	22 nd twenty-second
3 rd third	13 th thirteenth	23 rd twenty-third
4 th fourth	14 th fourteenth	24 th twenty-fourth
5 th fifth	15 th fifteenth	25 th twenty-fifth
6 th sixth	16 th sixteenth	26 th twenty-sixth
7 th seventh	17 th seventeenth	27 th twenty-seventh
8 th eighth	18 th eighteenth	28 th twenty-eighth
9 th ninth	19 th nineteenth	29 th twenty-ninth
10 th tenth	20 th twentieth	30 th thirtieth
		31 st thirty-first

For dates in spoken English, we always use an ordinal number for the day.

We say:
✓ Fourth of July
and not ✗ ~~Four~~ of July

C. Therefore, each student mentions a celebration they like most and the date it takes place; finally, the teacher asks for birthday dates.

Example:

I like the Flower Fair held in Medellín in August. Besides that, my birthday is on July 4th.
